

CIEH Level 2 Award in Principles of Risk Assessment

Duration 1 Day

This qualification raises awareness of the concept of risk assessment. It is designed to help improve the workplace culture for occupational health and safety by enabling employees to understand the basic principles of risk assessment.

Successful completion of the training programme and assessment will enable employees to understand the main causes of accidents and ill health in the workplace. Implications this has for people in the workplace, legal requirements for risk assessment and principles of risk assessment including, hazards, risks and control measures.

5 steps of Risk Assessment and the hierarchy of control is also included.