

How To Be A Leader

This 1 day course is for people who want to go beyond the basics of everyday management and become leaders.

It explains the difference between management and leadership, the qualities needed to be successful, techniques to influence and persuade others and how to lead people in times of change.