

Presenting With Confidence

This 1 day course is ideal for people who need to give presentations, address groups or speak in public.

It offers practical tips on how to prepare and deliver a successful talk, with a 10 step plan to follow every time.

It will explain how to structure a talk for maximum impact and clarity, how to choose just the right content and how to engage an audience from start to finish.