

Successful Performance Appraisals

This 1 day course is for managers who are involved in reviewing performance in some way.

It covers how to provide effective and constructive feedback, how to agree goals and objectives, how to prepare for, and run, a successful performance review meeting and how to identify reasons why people may be underperforming.